Eoin: We were switching cell phone services because we were trying to get a cheaper deal and Jessica switched both her phones this morning and then mine wasn't working and so I had to call with a friend's phone and get them to walk me through the whole process of getting my phone working again. My internet is working, you know, I was on Wi-Fi but the actual phone calls weren't working, and so I had to be on the phone for like 45 minutes. Sorry about that.
Barbara: No, no, it's okay. It happens.
Eoin: And now it looks like this service is not, it doesn't seem to be as good as the onewe already had so we might have to switch back. But anyway, that's what's going on. Apologies.
Barbara: No, don't worry at all. We kind of had a similar issue a few months ago as well when we renewed Eoin: And it's hard on the people who have that job too because they're dealing with people who don't want to be on the phone and, you know, they need pay. So I was as patient as like, I mean, I was pretty patient at the same time. I was just like, but anyway, look, it's all good. You know, we have things to sort out and I'm sorry that things have changed and that like, you know, I don't know. Like, you know, it's not going to work out as we originally, it's not going to work out as we originally hoped. So, you know, I understand you guys can't take on a full lease and that's fine. I understand nobody should pay $2,000 for a house these days. And, you know, it's not worth it to me to go into that at this point anyway. So, you know, what I was saying the other day, you know, basically I have to sell the house. But here's the thing. As I said in my last text, you don't have to make any sudden moves because I know obviously something life-changing is happening for you, you know, in the next five or six weeks or so. So, you know.
Eoin: Yeah. But the issue for me and, you know, I'm not going to have it affect you guys. But the issue for me, I'll just tell you, you know, is that I actually have to go at the end of this month. So, like, I'll be going,(A4)I'll be in Cork by the beginning of May. Most likely I haven't booked a ticket yet. And, you know, I don't know where I'm going to stay because I have to stay for like an extended period. And sorry, this is Jessica now texting me saying, any luck with the phone? Let me just send her a message. I'm just going to say it's working. Sorry about this, Barbara. She worries about these things. And, you know, Jessica wants to come with me. But obviously, if I don't have a place to stay for both of us, she's not going to come, at least not for an extended period. So, like, my preference, and look, I don't want you guys worrying or panicking or anything, because as I said, we don't have to make sudden moves. But my preference is to basically, you know, come back, move into the house, stay for a period.I don't know how long that's going to be or how long I want that to be, and then sell the house.
Eoin: And that's basically my preference. But I understand that you guys have stuff going on right now, and that can't happen for you immediately. Like, you're close to the hospital right? Where you're probably going to give birth. yeah, all of those things. So, so, like, I get all of that. So, like, I'm going to, I'm not going to try to disturb you guys during that time. And I'm going to see if I can find another place. I mean, certainly, of course, I have family and they're going to let me sleep on the couch for a certain amount of time. And my mother lives nearby, but she's, you know, and she's, you know, she's in a, it's not assisted living, but a retirement community where she just has a one bedroom apartment. So, you know, I can't, obviously can't stay there, but I want to try to get as close to there as possible. She lives just down by the Douglas manor, so it's like walking distance from High Street. But, you know, if I can't get that close, you know, that's just how it is. Like, it would be a different situation if you guys weren't about to have a baby, right? But I get it.

Eoin: So, I think what we should do, if it's preferable to you, is, you know, decide on a date by which I'll be able to move in there by myself. And in the meantime, because I may not be able to stay, if I don't have that place, I may not be able to stay in Ireland as long as I want. I may have to come back to America and then fly back to Ireland when it works out for us to make that transition. And in the meantime, you know, the positives I will say about this, because I know it's not, this is not a particularly positive thing, I think for any of us, because I didn't want to find myself in a place where I felt like I have to sell the house now, but here we are. So the positives are, Rebecca, you know I talked to her, and she's pretty much on your side in that anything that comes up that's suitable, she's going to give you a fair chance.
Eoin: And what I mean by a fair chance is if you qualify and it's within your budget, it seems to me that you guys are going to be on the top of the list.But the problem is, and what she said is like, you know, you have to qualify because obviously the landlord's got to see all of those things too.So it can't be something that's too expensive, but she might be able to find something, I hope, a listing that comes in that's a really good deal and it fits your needs. Now, let's say we agree on a time where we can make that transition. Now, if it happens before that. So then, like, let's say you guys find something or I hear of something because, as I told you before, I have family who have property and, you know, that probably would be suitable. But I asked my cousin, his place is, you know, it's not vacant, but let's say something like that happened in the next, you know, month or two.
Eoin: And let's say Rebecca found something or you guys found something and you decided, well, something comes up. Then you can leave. You can leave before our agreed upon date without any penalty. In other words, like, I'll be OK with that, because for me, it's sort of like the sooner the better. But I understand you guys need time. So what are your thoughts on all that?
Barbara: Well, it's just like hard to put like a time frame because we don't know when the babies come. It could have been the beginning of the month, could have been the middle, the end. And then it's still like all the, you know, postpartum, we don't know how it's going to be, if I'm going to give a natural birth or c-section, if I'm going to need, you know, medical assistance.So it's just it's just hard to give a time frame like when you don't know what it could have happened, you know, because it's like at least at least until August. I don't think that is any way for us to move out, you know, because I guess the next. Month, it's the last month for the baby, then another month for the postpartum. if that goes well, if I don't have any complication. So it's just really hard to give a time frame to put a time.
Eoin: But no, I understand. Well, then, you know, we can extend it as far as August if you need to. But we have to come up with a date, Barbara, because I can't be like, oh, like whenever I just can't. At this point in my life, because for me, I'm going to have to, first of all, find a place to stay. Right. So, like, you know how hard that is. Then if I can't stay for an extended period because I don't have the right place to stay, I'm going to. I'm going to have to leave and then come back, but I need to book my flight in advance or I need to know a date by which this is going. And we're going to have a transition. Now, if you say August, then, you know,
Barbara: I'm like, I'm just like a wild guess.
Lewis: Is there a specific reason for May? Because we'd probably have more information halfway through or like near the end of May would have more information to be able to give you a better date. But right now it's kind of hard.
Eoin: No, no, no, no. I understand. Like, yeah, well, it's May because, you know, I need to go see my mother. And I need to, you know, things have changed here dramatically because of the fires. Like I live in a bona fide disaster zone, like, you know, everything north of me for two miles.I don't want to say everything is gone, including places that I worked. And so, you know, I need to move on this pretty quickly.I mean, that's that's a reason we're changing phone services. We're tightening our belts is basically Jessica still has she's still OK with work. But mine has it is it is I mean, it's it's a small percentage of what I had before January 7th. I mean, that was that that's basically the day everything changed. And so I need to act on this as soon as possible.But as I said, I'm keeping your situation in mind. So if we need to like if you say August and I know you say it's hard to say because like the baby's coming in May and, you know, maybe there's complications, there's postpartum and all that kind of stuff. Like, of course, I get it. And that's why I say, like, if we need to go as far as August, then I can go as far as August. But, you know, but we'll need to pick a date. So like what I'm saying is like we need to pick a date that's the latest so I can. Plan for that. And then you guys, if something comes up through me or through you or through Rebecca and it happens before that, well, then, you know. It may be inconvenient to me because I may have booked my flight for the date in August that we agreed, but I will. You know, I'll be OK with that, like I'll just wear that. You know what I mean?

Eoin: You know, we can't have I can't have like, oh, well, whenever the right place comes up, because I mean, the place came up in Wilton and I get you don't want to move into a place that's not right for you.But to find a three bedroom place for the price that you guys are paying now, like it's it's kind of been it's been a great thing for the last year and a half or however. But, you know, if that doesn't come up again, like, you know, there's nothing I can do. Like, it's it's I hope that for you I hope that you can find something even better. That's that's cheaper. I mean, of course, I hope that for you. But, you know, I can only do what I can. And Rebecca can only do what she can. And also you guys can only do what you can. But, you know, we need to agree on a date so that I can make plans. And as you know, like if I were to choose a date, I would say like a month from now, like that's what I would say. And I'm not going to say that because obviously this is a huge month coming up for you.
Eoin: So but we so like if you guys are saying August, then we can say August, like I would agree to that. But if you guys are saying like, oh, well, we'll just see what happens. And, you know, August might happen or, you know, I just can't do that. I need to put it on the market as soon as I can. And I also need a place to stay when I'm there, so I don't have that. (A5) And like maybe there's going to be a couple of nights in May or whatever when I will take you up on that and say, look, I'm maybe going to stay in the front room or something, because if I'm staying far away, there's got to be times when I want to be up the street from my mother. But having said that, it's not going to bother you guys. It's going to be it would just be like, oh, I just need to put an air mattress in the front room or whatever.(A1) I wouldn't go upstairs or use your kitchen or anything like that you know what i mean so like for me it's kind of it's a little bit of crisis mode for me right now just because of you know news of my mother my the changes in in everything here because of the fire zone it's just kind of like you know if we had you know before before all this happened and and when we were talking about the possibility of police and all that and then you you were the one who brought up the whole possibility of getting fined 15 000 euro which i had actually looked up earlier that day and i you know i'm not prepared to take any risks i don't want to do anything illegal quite honestly even though i don't know if it's illegal or not because i would have to do further research on it but i really it's not wise for me to get into any of that at this point you know yeah so you know but but having you know i mean like i'm gonna do everything i can for you and you know that i have um uh references for you ongoing so like anytime like i think i told you Lewis that sometimes it's happened to me twice that i've got calls from people who haven't written down that i was their landlord on their application and the landlord has found out like it's easy to get information these days right through i don't know people who sign up for whatever uh internet or whatever it is and asking me asking for a reference on a tenant that never wrote me down as a reference so like you have me to get you into your next place, absolutely. And then years from now if somebody calls me I'm gonna do everything I can to help you guys to find your right place.

Eoin: I wouldn't be lying, you guys never late, we always communicating, and there was never being an issue, and so, you know, those are the positive things that you will always gonna have and I have a good relationship with Rebecca, and I'm gonna say to her look, if you can find something for them before the date that we agree on in august please do and then you know you guys can move and i you know i won't guarantee this at this point but i will throw you a couple of i'm not saying how much it might be as much as what it would have been for that wilton thing because i'll tell you the wilton thing for me would have really worked out because i'd have that place to come to uh by myself and bring jessica and so for me that paying that extra to help you guys uh would really would have been worth it whereas in august i mean have to book yet another flight or i just don't know but you know obviously you'll get your deposit back and you know I will through in a little bit extra, Im not gonna say how much, but I will give you guys a bit extra so you got a good start.
Eoin: And so, you know, I mean, those are the positive things about it. But I understand that, you know, it's not ideal, not ideal for you and your current situation. And, you know, and so, I mean, as I said, like, hopefully, a better place or a place that's as good, you know, comes up before that time. And, you know, I will talk to Rebecca to be like, even if, you know, if the right place doesn't happen and you have to go somewhere else or you have to take a different place. I'm going to do what I can to make sure she's. Still working for you and on your side. And as I said, she what she said is like a fair, a fair shot, meaning as long as you qualify, you know, you're at least going to get to see the place and you're going to be in the game. Because it sounds to me like, you know, these last places you've looked, you haven't had somebody who is willing to show the place before they give it away. You know what I mean?
Lewis: Well, I think the main concern as well. It's the same when you're talking about coming here is that all the bedrooms here, besides the one we actually sleep in, was turned into offices because we can't share offices because of privacy information and conflict with work. So they've all kind of been all the bedrooms have been turned into offices. So if now that we're looking for a new place like that last one, we that we could one of us can go in the attic.But then there was literally no other room to put the other person and a baby as well. And so.
Eoin: Oh, no, I understand. No, it wasn't suitable for you.And I get it. But I said in my last message, like, I understand why you turned it down. You didn't. You weren't interested.
Lewis: I only bring it up as well, just because, like you were saying as well, if you're coming here in May, that you might be coming and staying with us. And (A6) since day one, they've all just turned the bedrooms into offices. So it wouldn't be somewhere where you could stay. So we'd need advance notice just so we can make it. So you could sleep in there.
Eoin: No, no, of course. And as I said, I wouldn't even worry about that. I could sleep in the front room, like a living room with just something. And it would only be I'm only saying like a night or two. I'm not saying like I would come and like and move in and be like, oh, guys, I'm here. And, you know, of course, I would compensate you and help you out for all that stuff. But not no, it's not that it's not like I'm going to go, oh, hey, I'm going to take my bedroom back over now. Don't worry about that.It's just that. It's just down the street from my mother.And I'll have to come in and check some things out, get some things out of the attic.

Eoin: So I'll have to come into your house at some point anyway. But I may just like, you know, like stay in the front room because it's just right there by the door. I'm not going to bother you guys. I'm not going to go upstairs or, you know, you're you know, that that's not something.Eoin: Don't worry about that.
Lewis: No, just saying if it does become a thing, you are going to stay like the sooner notes we have, the better. So we can just make sure that everything's all sorted and you're comfortable. Even if it's just sleeping on an air mattress, that's fine. But it's just a little heads up.
Eoin: Of course, I'm not going to just turn up. Don't worry about that. When I arrive, I'll stay with my brother. As I said, his three grown up boys who I thought might be out of the house at this point. And they're still there.Because I thought I thought they'd be gone off to college. But I mean, they've all stayed at home to study and work and whatever else. But I mean, I'll be staying with him. So, like, when I'm in Cork, I'm going to get in touch with you guys and maybe I'll come see you and we can talk about all that in person. But I'm not going to be like, oh, I'm here with my air mattress. Don't worry about that. That wouldn't be fair on you guys. No, I'm not even thinking that at all. I'm just thinking, like, if I have to find a place that's a little out of town and like, let's say I have something on with my mother,(A2) like maybe I'll just crash in the front room like overnight and then like leave in the morning or something. But I'm not going to be hanging around your house.
Lewis: That's OK.
Eoin: Don't worry. I totally get.
Lewis: And that just goes towards the thing as well. Like when we're looking for a house. Like, of course. Of course, we'd love as many bedrooms as possible, but we do have a minimum that we can't we physically can't not think because otherwise one of us would have to lose a job then. So, of course, we would like we're looking at the countryside. We're looking in the middle of nowhere. So any houses that are popping up, we're applying for them. So don't just think like, oh, we're just being extra picky or we want the best of the best. Like we're happy as long as just the minimum things are met for us and we'll take anything at this stage.
Eoin: No, I agree. And, you know, the wonderful thing is you guys, you know, you work from home and you're going to have your baby at home. Like, that's amazing. So, like, you could live anywhere. But, yeah, I mean, you shouldn't have to compromise. And like if we if we set this time because now we're only in April. So like May, June, July, August, like if you if you guys are saying like four months, like that's that seems like a lot. That seems like a lot of time to be able to pin something down. And I know I know it's still hard, but like you have the flexibility to go out to the country. I mean, it might be nice, you know. And I mean, you have the flexibility. I have a friend who he lives near Riverstick, but he and he's got a cottage. But it's not suitable for you guys because it's it's I think it's got like two bedrooms max. And but, you know. so like at least you're flexible, like a lot of people who live in town, they can't be they can't be away. And so at least you have that. And I mean, you know, that's great. And look, here's the other thing. Let's say you are out the country and then you have to come back and you have an appointment with the with the doctor or something and you need a place to stay. You can come stay at my house as long as I'm there.
Eoin: You know, I mean, if you need like if it's something it's like, oh, I have this appointment here. And then I mean, not that you're going to want that, but let's say that happens as long as I'm in the house, which I can't tell you. Like, if it takes as long as August for you to go, I don't know how long beyond August I'm going to be there. But let's say that situation comes up. You know, of course, you can come to the house and, you know, stay overnight if you need to or whatever, you know. So, like, I know I didn't think, Lewis, you were being picky at all. I understood why you turned that down. And also, you know, the price like 1850 for something that I think the house that was in the front photo was not the same house as you saw. Was it?

Lewis: It was, it was just half a house. They cut the house in two.

Eoin: Oh, my God. Because when I saw that at the front, I thought, oh, that looks like a really good house.

Lewis: Yeah. Like the dining room you have here where the stairs are. That was the same size as the kitchen, living room, dining room in that place.

Eoin: Oh, my God. And they're charging 1850. That's insane. No, I completely understood. I completely understand and understand why you turned that down. And like, if something like that is going for 1850. I don't know what people are supposed to do. You know? So, like, if you find something cheaper out of the country, like, that might be a really nice experience. Like, like where my buddy has the cottage, it's out near Riverstick. And it's amazing. It's got all this farmland and like there's cows and, you know, and it's.

Barbara: But first, I don't think like too far we work either, you know, like we cannot just be in the middle of nowhere with a newborn baby. Like you said, for doctor's appointments and stuff like that.We need to be more close. Especially, Luis is the only one who drives. So, if he's busy. And cannot drive us, I need to take a bus. So, it has to be on a location where it's easy to come and go. We are okay to be more far. But it has to be more closer to amenities, you know. We cannot just be like in the middle of a farm.

Eoin: Yeah, for sure. And actually, not that I, I think about my friend's place. You couldn't, you couldn't. Well, the bus, I guess, stops at the end of the hill. But like, you know, it does. There, there is a bus that people take from there. But, but you're right. You can't, yeah, you can't be in a farm bus in the middle of, yeah, you can't. So, yeah, no, all that makes sense. And I get like you guys need, you know, you need, you need to check all those boxes. And, and, and look, and the thing is, you know. Wherever it is, if you like it and you're happy there, great. And if you, and if you feel like you want to move back to the city, you know, at a certain time, you can, you can keep looking. And maybe Rebecca can keep looking for you, you know. And so, if I have any family members that, I'm going to say it like when I'm there. It's not, it's not the kind of thing, like I did ask my cousin. I have a good relationship with him. But, you know, kind of asking my, my friends.I'm asking my, my brother like, oh, yeah, do you need a, you know, but when I see him, I'll ask him. And I'll say, look, if anything ever comes up, if you need a, oh, hang on, stuck.

Eoin: And if anything ever comes up or someone moves out, because I, I think he has a place that would really work for you guys. But, you know, obviously people are in there. Like he has it rented. So, you know. But what I'm saying is like. I'll keep my ear to the ground. And like, even if you guys are living somewhere else, you know, there's, there's, hope that something in that time is going to come up that you're going to be able to find the absolute perfect place. Even if the first place you move to isn't the absolute perfect place. You know what I mean? Did I lose you?

Lewis: No, no, it was still here.

Eoin: Oh, okay, good.All right. I was worried about my new phone service, I thought, maybe. But anyway, so look, why don't we pick a date in August? My preference would be the first of August. But if you guys want to go a little further than that, let's do that.

Lewis: Yeah. I think maybe if we pick like the middle, but then come May, we could have more information to kind of narrow it down to be sooner if it's needed. Or let's like,
Eoin: Okay. Well, why don't we? So let's put something in writing for mid August. And then if you guys need to change it, let me know.
Lewis: Oh. Perfect.
Eoin: Yeah. So what I'll do is I'll email you now and I'll say, Hey, guys, just, I'll say something like, just confirming what we talked about. And I'm going to be moving into the house. I'll be in the house by myself starting mid August. And then you guys confirm that you're okay with that. And then, you know, let me know if something comes up. If you guys say we're leaving sooner, no problem, no penalty. If you guys need an extra couple of weeks. I'm not going to book my flight. And I'm not going to book my flight until we confirm a real time. You know what I mean? So like, if you say to me, if you say to me, look, there's a chance I'll actually still be in Cork. But I don't think so. Not if I don't have a place that's my own. So like, so like in May, then we can talk and we'll talk in person. And, and we can decide like, okay, so we said August 15th. So then, you know, if you need to, if you want to leave on August 1st, that's fine. Just let me know. And then if you need an extension, then I'll give you an extension.So the end of August, let's say it's not, it's not, you know, it's not my preference, but if you need it, I'll give it to you.
Lewis: Okay.
Eoin: Okay. So let's do that. So let me fire off the computer here. I think the right thing is going to come up for you guys, but I, you know, and I, I feel like, I'm sorry, it didn't all work out. You know, I was hoping it would, but I, I get that, you know, that, price of rent is just shocking.And also, you know, it's not worth it to me if I don't do that. And it's just, it's just going to be, it's just, it's just come to a, come to a head for me. Right now, you know, so I'm repeating myself, but, let me send you this email and yeah. And, and look, let me know if there's anything else I can do to help because if, if I can, let's see. And no judgment on the Wilton place. I couldn't believe when I saw the photos of the inside compared to the outside. It was like, well, cause after you said. Okay. After you text me, I'll look at it. And I was like, well, if I'm looking at these bedrooms, where are those big windows that I'm seeing from the outside? I never would have sent you. I never would have asked you or suggested that you go if I had known.
Barbara: We appreciate like, like I said before, we do appreciate all your help. You know, it's just, unfortunately, if it was like a good match, we would have take straight away, you know? But the price was not right. The size, especially the size, you know, it was just like lEWIS saying, like it was kitchen, dining room, living room altogether. It seems like one half of the person could be there. Not even imagine like a couple with a baby. And as much as work from home is good. Sometimes that also like, you know, kind of we need the space. And it's good and it's bad at the same time.
Eoin: For sure. And you know, what would be great is if you find a place with like a little bit of land so you can kind of go out and sit there like sometimes because I work from home. I mean, basically, my work is just preparing for the live shows that I haven't been doing. So it's, you know, that's another reason. I'm. I've got the freedom to go in May. Unfortunately, it's not a good but it's but it's but like what I'm doing stuff inside and I just step outside for a minute. It's like, you know, it's good. Like, you know, based where you are now, that's a disadvantage of where you are now. But like once you find like space and like you're when you're your child becomes a toddler to have them go outside and be in the garden or you know what I mean? Like it's huge. And once I moved into a place that I outdoor space, I felt like I could never really go back, you know? Let me just I'll write this as we're chatting if you don't mind.And i'll…yet..like you both to vacate, agreed…

Barbara: Yeah i was thinking if you could writing the reference as well do you know cuz then we could send as well for us, that will be fantastic
Lewis: yeah, they ask when you apply for the houses
Barbara: some of the houses they asked straightaway we've been able to like also like oh we will send it we will still waiting for him to reply just to make sure
Eoin: they usually do it by phone and anyone who's ever asked me has done it by phone though do they do they like a written
Barbara: yeah they always like because we apply because we when we apply they email us back and say like can you just send your employee and your landlord reference so they ask for like a letter do you know
Eoin: yes yes of course yeah it's interesting because the only ones i got maybe because i was never written down or maybe even if they did write me down they check they call so i may get even if i don't give the phone number which i i'm happy to call number but that's maybe how they do it they research, and then because i got a call so i think they want to confirm references
Barbara: yeah sometimes they do confirm sometimes it's just to like you know make sure that we are good people
Eoin: oh of course yeah yeah yeah and and i'm happy to tell i'm good on the phone you know so i'm happy to talk to um anyone 31 high street cork on august what do we say 15th i'll put yeah 2025…i will be.. until then… but.. after..august 15th. okay so i'll just say this see what you think let's just confirming what we talked about we agreed that you we agreed that you both will will vacate your rooms at 31 high street cork on august 15 2025 i will keep my room in the house until then but will have the whole house to myself after august 15th, and don't worry about it guys that doesn't mean that i'm turning up at your door with an air mattress and a family. no don't worry i'm just get in there because that's our agreement is basically you have rooms you know what i mean and so when i write the reference and i what i will do maybe is i will say because we don't have an official lease we have a room share lease and i will i will put in there something about the fact that you're renting the section of my no i don't even need to actually state what it is no i'll do it so that you're basically renting but i i won't
Barbara: yeah you just basically just said that we are good people we never give you any problem we pay the rent in time keep the house clean it's just like you know something you don't need like to go to a specific details of the rental agreement it's just it's a
Eoin: exactly so i'll just say you have been tenants at 31 high street since september 2023 no i'll write you a great reference and then if you need any changes to it or you need me to adjust anything uh let me know so i'll just keep it on my computer okay so uh move out date oh also let me also tell you this i'm going to put this in here so you have been writing if you choose to move out before then you can do so without a penalty any penalty your full deposit will be refunded i'll say just like less any utilities but that would be minimal anyway less any i'll say bills we call it there right utilities they call it less any bills owed Eoin: okay so here's i think this is fair just confirming what we talked about we agreed that you both will vacate your rooms at 31 high street on august 15 2025 i will keep my room in the house until then but we'll have the whole house to myself after august 15th so if you choose to move out before then you can do so without any penalty your full deposit will be refunded less any bills owed i think that's good right yes that's so right okay so i'll send that now and if you can both just respond to that to confirm and yeah so let me see i'm gonna send that Lewis: Wait, you mean that sorry yeah you'll keep room it mean like you'll stay in the room or?

Eoin: no no no no no. Don't worry lewis no no i'm not gonna turn up and stay at your house i'm going to as i said maybe one night or two nights over you know the space i might come in and just crash in your front room but i'm gonna just putting this to make it official because the thing we have the contract we have is a roommate agreement okay but okay does it like i still technically have access to a room in your house but i'm not going to i'm not going to use that room ever
Lewis: oh okay yeah no i'll get it i'll get it now yeah we're talking about the reference letter now
Eoin: yeah yeah no no it's just because that's what it says in our in our agreement so like the agreement stays the same just i'm going to have the house to myself right now
Lewis: oh sorry sorry sorry yeah this is for the this is for the email that we're going to sign to say about August
Eoin: uh about oh yeah no for your reference
Lewis: oh okay yeah sorry i've literally just finished work my brain is completely gone and you better talk to barbara
Eoin: okay so let me just look at this just confirming what we talked about we really will forget your rooms at 31 high street cork on august 15 2025 i'll keep my room in the house until then but we'll have let me just put this but i will have the whole house to myself after august 15th if you choose to move out before then you can do so without any penalty you're full deposit will be refunded less any bills owed or um holes in the wall i'm not going to put that in please respond with confirmation from you both yeah so if you can both respond to this then we'll just then we'll say it's we're good okay okay great i think good comment for you guys you know what i mean it's always do you know what happens in life i find is like you know there's a lot of changes all at once and but then you you know you find you you find your place and then you go oh that was the best thing that ever happened i'm still trying to justify that with the fires that happened in our neighborhood but you know it'll reveal itself the positive sign will reveal itself
Lewis: if we can move out any sooner we'll let you know we'll keep you updated with any information on houses
Eoin: yeah yeah absolutely and you know um hopefully uh yeah hopefully the right thing i think with that much time it's like that's more than four months may june july i yeah i think you're going to be okay
Barbara: yeah, and then when you get a change to send the reference letter as well, if you dont mind, please
Eoin : yeah actually you know what i'll work on that today and i'll send it to you so yeah and then let me know if you need i'll send you a proof and then you can let me know if there's any changes and i'll put it into a pdf or whatever for you so yeah and then and then i have a i'll put my uh i'll include my phone number they can email me contact me anytime and so yeah
Eoin: yeah no i'll do that i actually have to go set somebody else but um but yeah do you guys have any questions i always feel like i talk a lot more than you i apologize i apologize
Lewis: if we have any if i have any more questions i can't think of anything right now but if anything comes up i'll text you um if you yeah and you have the same just let me know and we'll try to get back to you as quickly as possible

Eoin: of course yeah that sounds great well thank you guys for for chatting and um yeah i i you know what i i think i think good things are coming but yeah but i i'll see you at some point in may you know i'll let you know and i'll i'll i need to take some stuff out of the attic but um other than that you won't see much of me okay perfect
Barbara: no worries thank you once again for all the help and understanding
Eoin: no of course well this is this has been great i'm sorry it's not going to work out for for long term but you know i think i i think they understand i think you're going to find something something affordable so we should do all right talk to you soon
